I, Leslie Ray Dillon, being duly sworn according to law, hereby depose to state:

1) I am of sound mind and I have direct knowledge of the matters contained in this document.

2) On 19 September 2012, I was housed in a 30 level pod in Unit 1 at Mansfield Correctional. My cell was searched by security Threat Group officers. Letters and other paper work were taken from my cell. The following day I was placed in segregation under investigation. The next day I learned that the cells of Sean Swain and James Dzelacliv'a were also searched.

3) On 27 September 2012, Lieutenant R.S. Chapman and J. Benard of the Ohio State Highway Patrol interviewed me. Lt. Chapman indicated he was investigating bomb threats against Ohio Government officials issued by the Army of the 12 Monkeys. I knew nothing of such threats but feared I would be blamed if I admitted that I was a member of the Army of the 12 Monkeys, so I denied my membership.

4) By 12 October 2012, I knew from speaking with correction's staff that the letters mentioned by the O.S.H.P. were not bomb threats, that no bomb threats had never been made, as the letters being investigated were not serious and correction staff had told me as much, and finding out that Mr. Swain and Mr. Dzelacliv'a were also being investigated as members of the Army of the 12 Monkeys, I spent the weekend writing my third press release since being placed in segregation and admitted to being "Monkey #9, Army of the 12 Monkeys."

5) Sean Swain is not a member of the Army of the 12 Monkeys! I know this because, as Monkey #9, I am the only member of the Army of the 12 Monkeys at Mansfield Correctional Institution. And as such, I have not recruited nor tried to recruit any members, including Sean Swain.

6) James Dzelaivilia is not a member of the Army of the 12 Monkeys! I know this because, as Monkey #9, I am the only member of the Army of the 12 Monkeys at Mansfield Correctional Institution. And as such, I have not recruited nor tried to recruit any members, including James Dzelaivilia.

7) Both Swain and Dzelaivilia were in 3A level housing on the opposite side of the compound from me. I did not personally know either of them, though because of my prior jobs at ManCI, I had occasion to know who both of them are. In five and a half (5 1/2) years at ManCI, I may have had brief conversations with each of them prior to this investigation. But I did not try to recruit them.

8) I did not know until I received my conduct report on 23 October 2012 that Swain had a 12 Monkeys tattoo from the 1990s film starring Brad Pitt and Bruce Willis. When I asked Swain he told me he had the tattoo for several years and also has a burn scar on his right hand that matches the scar on Brad Pitt's hand in the movie "Fight Club". Having had the opportunity to see Swain's tattoo, I know it is different from the logo on the 12 Monkey material, as he changed the time on the clock.

9) Members of the Army of the 12 Monkeys are told not to tattoo the logo onto their bodies. Members are not to identify themselves as a member. This admission is only permitted because I have already been identified.

10) After the death of 2Pac Shakur, thirteen (13) "MaKaveli" albums were released. One of them features a song called "Everyone Rise". I remember this song because I am a 2Pac fan. On or about 18 September 2012, I met someone on the north recreation yard who had the lyrics to this song. I copied them and put "Monkey #12" as the author.

11) On 23 October 2012, when I read my conduct report, I found out that Dzelauliya had a handwritten copy of those lyrics. It is my understanding that Dzelauliya copied the lyrics but changed some of the words, because he is a rapper and intended to use the song.

12) I have made several attempts to explain to Man CI administration that Sean Swain and James Dzelauliya are not involved with the Army of the 12 Monkeys. I have sent Kite communications to Warden Tibbals, Major Harr, investigator Hunsinger, and the chair of the Rules and Infractions Board with no responses. Dzelauliya is facing placement in max security (4B status) and Swain is facing placement in super max security (5B status) for participation in a group that they do not belong to, and activities said to have been performed.

13) On 3 December 2012, I was approached by a Man CI staff member whom I did not recognize. He did not give me his name. I was told that if I implicated Swain as the leader of the Army of the 12 Monkeys, investigator Hunsinger would get my R.I.B. conviction overturned. I refused to do that, and that evening a Security Threat Group officer searched and destroyed my cell. The next day, Director Gary Mohr affirmed my R.I.B. sanction.

14) Former Ohio Attorney General Jim Petro, in his book False Justice, writes: "MATH 2: Our system almost never convicts an innocent person. Ron Huff, PhD, claims .5 to 1% error rate nationwide, that's about 500 people in Ohio." This is also true regarding the prison system's disciplinary process.

15) I make this statement without coercion or promise. I am of sound mind. I fear retaliation from Man CI staff for undermining them, but I cannot keep silent while two (2) innocent men get attacked, and have their lives ruined.
