Ben,
 I'm all caught up reading stuff. You're a fuckin' beast, dude. The explanations are perfect.
 Before I forget. Beer "pong" refers to a game involving a pingpong ball landing in a cup. Beer BONG is a device that collects a large quantity of beer and when you open your mouth, gravity crams it straight your gullet. I've referred to Tom Miller as BeerBong and I think you have called him BeerPong. For purposes of credibility with the binge-drinking crowd, we have to maintain unity regarding Tom's monicker. :)
 Spoke with Kerger. He seems to want to continue cordial exchange with these lying assholes rather than just clubbing them on the head and being done with it. Hurns. I think we're better filing for the injunction, which is temporary, and then in the hearing for making it permanent, we put Trainwreck and Sherlock Paulie and the gang on the ho see what shakes loose. We'll see. Perhaps I'm too quick to push the nuke button. Just seems to me that, rather than seeking new explanations from the same old liars who already got caught, we just take it to the judge.
 13Feb, medical is concerned about med refusal. Nurse wants me to talk to nurse practitioner. I don't want to explain much to them, as political action equals "suicidal gesture" and I would again end up without outside communication. I also don't want them taking my blood pressure because I don't want them to know what the situation is. Let's assume, in the absence of knowing, that it's bad.
 My immediate goal is to remain in population until 5:30 pm EST. That also allows me to get these emails out.
 I have arranged for you, Kerger, and Bursts to be notified if I am removed from population. I'll write something below for such a contingency. Always good to be prepared.

ANARCHIST PRISONER SEAN SWAIN "DISAPPEARED" BY PRISON FASCISTS, STATE OF HEALTH AND WELL-BEING UNKNOWN

Ohio State Penitentiary administrators removed Sean Swain from population, according to a prisoner housed on Sean's security level. He is now held incommunicado, without phone or email access, and likely without writing materials. When prison officials last removed Sean from population at Mansfield Correctional, he was placed in a torture cell with no heat, no bed, no shower, forced to pace 24 hours a day to stay warm. He left there sleep-deprived and hallucinating. Less than 90 days ten were deep asleep and handcuffed. Less than 20 days later, two other prisoners died on Torture Cell Row. Sean initiated a hungerstrike on Monday, 02 February and refused blood pressure medication beginning Tuesday, 10 February. His health is likely already compromised, so placement in a torture cell, isolated from all other prisoners and cut off from the outside world, could only be initiated by prison officials for the obvious motive of eliminating Sean once and for all. Sean, anticipating this possibility, explained, "The only thing to gain by isolating me is the opportunity to continue refusing me medications after I have agreed to start taking them again. In other words, isolating me gives them the chance to murder me without witnesses, something they can't do while I'm in population."

Prison officials would benefit greatly from the death of Sean Swain. Currently, Sean has a lawsuit filed through his counsel, Richard Kerger. This lawsuit threatens to expose the illegality of ODRC Director Gary Mohr's JPay policy, that enriches a prison profiteer corporation; it threatens to expose the State's recourse to torture, and a connection between the FBI and torture engineer Trevor Clark, who was disclosed as "agency liaison" to the FBI; it threatens to expose a not-so-secret dirty war waged by government against dissidents and critics, particularly of an anarchist perspective.

It very well may be that ODRC Director Gary Mohr, his corporate sponsors, and his FBI puppeteers have decided that they are better off with Sean Swain dead than alive.

Sean's supporters and legal counsel await any kind of communication from Sean, who has previously proven resourceful at smuggling communiques out of the prison, even from the supermax.

Prior to his being "disappeared," he was asked pointedly about prison officials murdering him to silence him permanently. He said, "Somewhere, some time, some government official decided nobody would care if Mohammed Bouazizi lived or died. Then, 3 governments in the region were swept out of power by the force of popular resistance. Somewhere, some time, some government official decided nothing would happen if Mike Brown died. Then, popular resistance burned down Ferguson.

"I don't know. Maybe they can get away with killing me, maybe they can't. But if they think they need to kill a former gas station attendant who had a 2.2 grade-point average in high school in order to defend their fascist program from the truth, they've already lost; they're in far deeper shit than they realize."

Demand Sean's immediate release back to general population and reinstatement of all of his communication!
