To Other States Considering Taking Me into Custody
to Let the State of Ohio Off the Hook:

Hi! My name is Sean Swain. I was named Anarchist Prisoner of the Year by ANARCHISTNEWS.ORG, which is visited by millions of bomb-throwing crazies on a daily basis. The site, SEANSWAIN.ORG, posts all of my work.

My attorney, Richard Kerger, is suing the living fuck out of Ohio prison officials. If you take me into custody, I'm sure I will introduce you to him... right before you put your own pistol in your mouth and leave a splatter-pattern on your office wall.

But the most fantastic part of holding me captive is that you get to deal with the thousands of savage cannibals who regularly access the updates on the website and listen to the weekly radio segments on The Final Straw Radio Show, broadcast from North Carolina to California, from Canada to Belgium, from France to New Zealand. These swainiacs are so radical, they make other anarchists nervous.

So, good luck silencing me. Then you can deal with them, and with the possibility that they may tire of your harassment of me, and who knows what happens after that? After all, we live in a brave new world where even federal judges' home addresses end up posted on the internet.

So, yeah. Go ahead and take me into your custody. I'm sure this situation will work out much better for you than it has for these fuckweasels who started this war with me. You know, the war I'm finishing.

Go ahead. Don't let me discourage you. I'm sure it will work out great.

Hugs and Kisses,

Anarchist Prisoner Sean Swain
